Dear Vice Chancellor,
I have received the invitation from the Sri Lanka Press Institute, in collaboration with the Embassy of the Netherlands in Colombo, to attend the World Press Photo Exhibition 2024. I am pleased to accept the invitation and will be attending the exhibition on Saturday, January 11th, 2025 at 7:05 PM.

Dear Vice Chancellor Senior Professor Ranjana Wickrema Seneviratne,

The Sri Lanka Press Institute, in collaboration with the Embassy of the Netherlands in Colombo, is delighted to invite students from your esteemed university, particularly those enrolled in Arts, Photography, Journalism, Politics, and Media programs, to attend the prestigious World Press Photo Exhibition 2024.

This is a unique opportunity for your students to witness the power of visual storytelling through the lens of some of the world's most renowned photojournalists. The exhibition showcases the award-winning work of photojournalists and documentary photographers from the 2024 contest, offering a glimpse into global issues and inspiring young minds.

Why Your Students Shouldn't Miss This Exhibition:

- Encounter Award-Winning Photojournalism: Witness firsthand the power of visual storytelling through the lens of some of the world's most renowned photojournalists.
- Gain Insights into Global Issues: The exhibition will showcase images that highlight critical social and environmental challenges, fostering a deeper understanding of the world around us.
- Spark Inspiration and Creativity: The exhibition serves as a platform for students to develop their own visual language and explore the potential of photography as a tool for social commentary.
